Christ Is the Christian's Religion

THOMAS COLE (1628–1697)

Edited by Dr. Don Kistler

Thomas Cole (1628–1697) was a Puritan preacher of the first rank. He has 3 sermons in the “Puritan Sermons: Cripplegate” set and succeeded the celebrated Philip Nye at the Independent congregation in London. He was known as “an unbending Calvinist.”

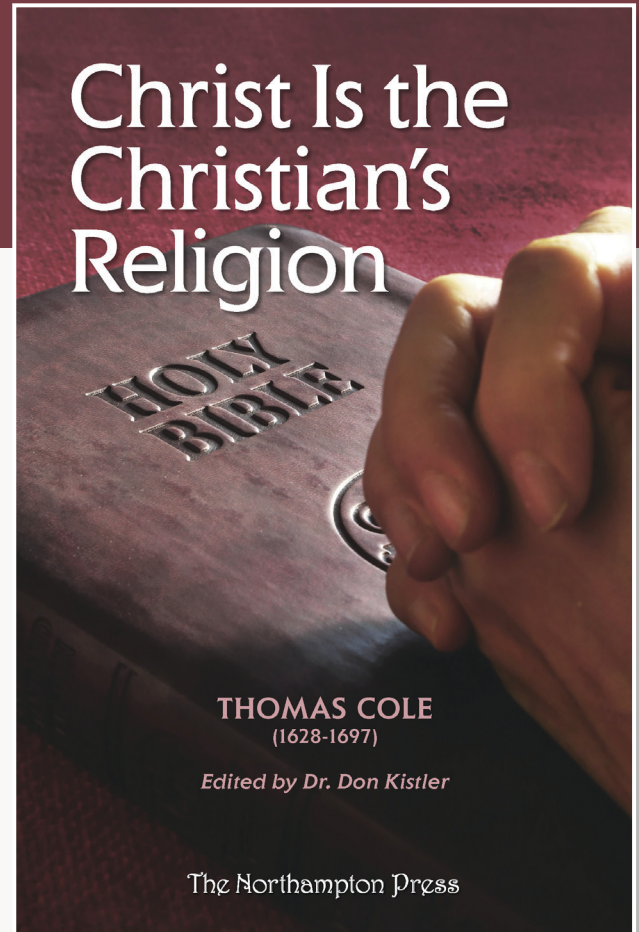

Here are 7 sermons extolling the person and work of Jesus Christ, the grandest subject for anyone to preach upon.

- Christ In Us the Hope of Glory
- What It Is to Know God in Christ
- Christ the Only Savior of His People from Sin
- Christ the Great Redeemer of Body and Soul
- Christ the Only Mediator of the New Covenant
- Christ the Foundation of Our Adoption
- The Necessity of Preaching Christ
