The Great Duty of Keeping Ourselves from Iniquity

JOHN WHITLOCK

(1625-1709)

Edited by Dr. Don Kistler

John Whitlock was a minister of the gospel in Nottingham, England. Here are 9 sermons on Psalm 18:23: "I was also upright before Him and I kept myself from mine iniquity."

Whitlock shows that men have some sins that are unique to them. That is why David prays to be kept from his iniquity. He shows the difference between a reigning sin and a tyrannizing corruption.

This is Puritan pastoral counseling at its very best. Appendixed are Whitlock's farewell sermon from Revelation 3:3 and his funeral sermon preached upon his death in 1709.

The retail price for this 152 page hardback, acid-free paper, Smyth sewn binding is $24.00.
